ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

Gov. Charles J. Bell of Walden attended the New Hampshire state fair at Concord Wednesday and made a brief speech.

Henry G. Stiles, division freight agent at Indianapolis of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad, dropped dead this week of apoplexy. Mr. Stiles had been in railroad service for fifty years. He was 62 years old and served through the Civil War in the 10th Vermont Volunteers.

Work on the road that J. C. Colgate is having built from his residence in Bennington to the summit of Mount Anthony is progressing as rapidly as can be, but it will not be completed this year. The season has not been as favorable for work on the mountain as it was last year.

From West Addison comes report that many of the farmers are threshing oats in the field, being unable to draw them to the barn, the ground being too wet. The rains have occasioned many hundreds of dollars loss to the farmers in the grain crops. Pears and plums are plentiful in that vicinity.

The reports of attendance in the Burlington public schools show that the total attendance for the first week of the fall term was 2,307, which is a gain of 37 pupils over the record for the first day of school this year and of 370 over the attendance for the first week of school last year. The first week of school has passed successfully in every way.

The contract for the building of the Eber W. Cobleigh public library at Lyndonville has been awarded to C. W. Spear of Burlington. The building is to cost $16,500, is to be completed for occupancy on or before July 1, 1906, and work on it is to be begun at once. Mr. Cobleigh, who originally gave $15,000 for the building of the library, has recently added $1,500 to his gift.

Mrs. Groll of Guilford had an adventure with a big buck deer one day last week which might have been serious. She went to her garden to gather vegetables for dinner when the deer, which was there for a like purpose, approached her in a very threatening manner. When so close that only a lean pole separated them, the family dog came to the rescue and chased the deer back to the woods.

Frank O. Emerson, for the past three years carrier of the mail between Granville, N. Y., and Pawlet, was arrested by Officer Mason of Pawlet on Saturday on the charge of carrying intoxicating liquors into Vermont and selling the same. He was arraigned on Monday, a dozen witnesses being taken from Pawlet to appear against him. He was fined $500 and costs, amounting to about $400.

The Congregational church at Bellows Falls, which was repaired during August at an expense of $2,200, was reconsecrated September 10. The church is now one of the handsomest in its interior finish in that section. Tuesday evening, Sept. 12, a farewell reception was given the Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Stocking. Mr. Stocking, who has been pastor of the church during the past three years, has gone to Newtonville, Mass., to assume the duties of his new pastorate there.

Misses Lula and Grace Bentley were injured though not seriously by an accident to the merry-go-round at the Manchester fair grounds Thursday. A stake which fastened the tent under which the horses were, became loose and pulled up, throwing one of the ropes under the machine, and wrecking several of the horses. These young ladies were thrown to the ground, one receiving injury to her back and the other hurting her arm.

George E. Johnson, clerk of the United States court, has made up the cases for trial at the October term of the United States court, which will convene in Rutland, October 3. There are five cases noted for trial, as follows: First National Bank of Plattsburg vs. Susan B. Sowles; Samuel D. Wilson vs. Percival W. Clement; James F. Henry vs. International Paper Co.; Hobart G. Brewer vs. Ephraim A. Perley et al.; and Gilman B. Wilson vs. William G. Freedy.

Mrs. Emily Hodges Townsend, aged 75 years, widow of Dwight Townsend, for several terms member of Congress from Long and State Islands, and a daughter of the late George T. Hodges, of Rutland, who served the earlier Congresses, died of pneumonia at East Hampton, L. I., September 13. Mrs. Townsend was born in Rutland in 1830, and her stories of her trips to Washington and New York with her father, in the late 30's and early 40's, before the era of railroads, were most interesting. She is survived by a son and two daughters.

Doe Blinded by Shot.

A blind doe was found Thursday in the barnyard of Mrs. Hiram Winslow at Sudbury. The animal entered with the cattle and was suffering from a birdshot wound in the head, which caused the blindness. Warden Thomas was notified and ordered D. F. Lawrence to shoot the animal. Mr. Thomas went to Sudbury but the doe had taken to the woods.

13th Vermont Reunion.

The annual reunion of the 13th Vermont regiment will be held in Grand Army hall in St. Johnsbury Saturday. Through the forenoon the comrades will have a chance to visit and exchange reminiscences and at noon Chamberlain Relief Corps will serve a dinner. The business meeting comes at 1:30. Followed by speeches on the life work of deceased comrades. Among the distinguished guests who will be present is Governor Bell, though it is a matter of regret that the colonel of the regiment, Senator Proctor, will be unable to be there because of an engagement in Washington.

The 30th annual meeting of the Reunion society of the 3rd Vermont regiment will be held at the G. A. R. hall in St. Johnsbury, Tuesday, September 10. The business of the meeting will be taken up at 11 o'clock, to be followed by the dinner to be served by the Chamberlain Relief corps. After dinner Roland E. Stevens of Hartford, a son of a veteran and a graduate of St. Johnsbury Academy in the class of '91, will address the veterans and Miss Kate D. Wheelock and others will sing.

IMPOSTER AT WORK.

Getting Money at Bristol as a Salvation Army Officer.

Disguised as an officer of the Salvation Army, a man has been at work in the state asking for sums of money for benefit purposes and appropriating them to his own use. The discovery of the deception was made by Pete Sosnin of the Burlington army corps, who recently returned from Bristol, where he went to collect money for the harvest festival to be conducted by the local corps in the near future. The people of Bristol told Mr. Sosnin that they had already contributed to the work. No one was sent to Bristol by the local corps and no one had a right to collect money without the written permission of Captain Aylsworth.

But a man had been in Bristol whose claims to membership in the army was borne out by the army suit he wore, and in the day time scoured the surrounding country for contributions. It is not known how much he succeeded in getting out of the people, but it is estimated he has obtained at least $100. The authorities have been notified and if he returns he will be apprehended.

BURNS PROVED FATAL.

Miss Helen Lund of St. Johnsbury, Dies at the Hospital.

St. Johnsbury, Sept. 18.—Miss Helen Lund, a young woman, who worked in the local retail shop of Henry Hudson, died at 5:45 o'clock Saturday at Brightlook hospital from the effects of terrible burns received Friday night.

She was caring for her sister, Florence, who was ill. A kerosene lamp in the room exploded about 5 o'clock, and she was ill. A kerosene lamp down two flights of stairs, to the street. The wind was blowing a gale at the time, and her clothing caught fire. Her sister begged her to throw the lamp out of the window, but she feared she would set adjoining buildings on fire. Miss Lund is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Lund, of Granby, who have arrived here, and two sisters, Florence, of this place, and Clara, of East Braintree.

A Sympathetic Death.

St. Johnsbury, Sept. 18.—Mrs. John A. Gunn, who was operated upon last Thursday afternoon, the operation being a very serious one, and who had been making good progress toward recovery, died at 12:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, after hearing of the death of Miss Helen Lund, who died as the result of terrible burns received Friday night.

Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McDonald of Forestdale, a post office in Brandon, celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage Friday afternoon and evening, September 8. During the evening refreshments were served on the lawn, which was prettily decorated with Chinese lanterns. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald were presented $25 in gold by their sons, and many other gifts from other relatives and friends.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember that after marriage many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown of Bennington, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." The Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store sell and guarantee them at 50c per bottle.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpelide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him? It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of dandruff and prevent baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Cantharides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpelide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasite germ which feeds on the hair roots.

It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpelide Co., Detroit, Mich.

WELCOMED IN VERMONT.

William Redmond, the Well Known Irishman.

Windsor, Sept. 18.—Hon. William H. K. Redmond, MP, visited this town Saturday afternoon for the purpose of viewing the model for the statue for the monument to Charles Stewart Parnell, to be erected in Dublin, and which is now rapidly approaching completion at the studio of Augustus St. Gaudens, at Cornish, on the New Hampshire side of the Connecticut river from this town.

Mr. Redmond was accompanied from Boston by Mrs. Redmond, Miss Marie Narelle, the famous Irish-Australian singer, and a personal friend of the Redmond family; John O'Callaghan, national secretary of the United Irish league of America; Dr. T. J. Dillon, president of the Boston central council of the league, and Michael Maynes, vice president of the Boston central branch.

At Bellow Falls Mr. Redmond and his friends were welcomed to Vermont by John J. O'Connor of that town, who represents the state on their national executive committee of the United Irish league of America.

There was a crowd of 500 townspeople on the platform, who cheered Mr. Redmond enthusiastically as he walked across the platform to change to the Connecticut & Passumpsic train for Windsor.
